

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Year: 2020 Volume: 9 Issue: 2

Dear Readers,

Seasons greetings to all our readers from the editorial team of Journal of Interdisciplinary Dental Sciences. We understand it can be difficult to compose an academic paper with technically solid information. But we need to understand that in order to receive a high impact and citation the research papers need to be refined. A few guidelines to remember are to format the article's outline, revise your work, utilise trustworthy references from many sources, always make it better, and keep it simple while keeping the reading audience in mind.

Having said that, the authors of present issue have made a commendable job in making their manuscripts.

We have interesting original research along with reviews and case reports for you in the current issue.

Enjoy reading!

With best regards,

Dr. Vinita Murgod
